TO

Regulate the Sittings of the Quarter Sessions Court of the Borough of Cork. A.D. 1879.

WHEREAS the present fortnightly sittings of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the borough of Cork are attended with great loss and inconvenience to the jurors of the said borough and are unnecessary:

5 And whereas since the union of the offices of recorder of Cork and county court judge of the east riding of Cork such sittings have become inexpedient, and are incapable of being carried into effect without a serious impediment and delay to the proper administration of justice in the sessions towns of said east riding, and 10 it is therefore expedient to repeal the enactment regulating the present sittings of the said borough quarter sessions, and to provide for the holding thereof in manner herein-after mentioned: 15 & 16 Vict. c. 143. s. 105.

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and 15 Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited for any purpose as the Cork Borough Court Amendment Act, 1879. Short title.

2. So much of the Act passed in the session of Parliament held 20 in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and forty-three, intituled "The Cork Improvement Act, 1852," as requires that the recorder shall hold a general quarter sessions of the peace for the borough, or an adjournment thereof, once at least in every fortnight in each and every year, is hereby 25 repealed, and instead thereof the one hundred and sixty-eighth section of the Act of the session of Parliament held in the third and fourth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred and eight, intituled "An Act for the regulation of municipal corporations in Ireland," shall regulate the sittings of the Repeal. 15 & 16 Vict. c. 143. s. 105. 3 & 4 Vict. c. 108. s. 168.
